December 16th, 2013

Mediterranean Ethnic Lunch: Thanks to all the parents and grandparents for their delicious donations of tasty Mediterranean Cuisine. It was one of the best ever. Maybe we can revisit the Thai lunch we had to cancel after we get back from Winter Break.

Chinese Painting with Sharlene: We have a double gift in store, for not only will Sharlene be Kiki's sub for the first week of school in January, but she will be sharing a Chinese Painting Workshop that she has taken all over the state as an Artist in the Schools.

Reminder for Clay Bowls:

Students have first right of refusal to bring in a donation of $5 before January 17th and they can "stake a claim" on their own bowl. The day of the soup fundraiser remaining bowls will be up for grabs for the first donations of $5 for a bowl. The soup will be an additional donation of $5 for all you can eat soup.

Stay Tuned: Farm fresh Oranges

WEATHER DELAYS!!!!!!

FWA T-Shirts: These t-shirts might make some great stocking stuffers!

INSERVICE: December 20th: Teachers continue to work on examining the new English/Language Arts/Math Standards and how/if we will need to adapt our programs and report cards.
