HAPPENINGS

TRANSPORTATION - MOVIN' RIGHT ALONG...

As we move toward the holiday break the kids are rotating between an exploration of submarines including designing and 'building a sub' with Jon, being transported back in time to look at native crafts with Deb (last week was native American blankets, this week dream catchers), and a return to the early days of our country and the westward movement by wagon trains (prairie schooners, if you will) complete with some cooking on 'the trail' with Kim.

CALLING ALL BAKERS!!!

We need cookies, and this seems a good time of the year to ask!! On Thurs., Dec. 18th, we are having a Student-Teacher Holiday Cookie Social. We could use some trays of cookies to go with our hot cocoa. If you are in the holiday baking spirit and could donate some for our pre-holiday celebration, please let a teacher know. We would like them in the morning that day. Thank you!

NITTY GRITTY INFORMATION

Please check your child's extra clothing supply at school to be certain that they have a full change available. Wet weather might mean a change is needed. Also, a quick check for seasonal appropriateness of clothing is a good idea!

Winter weather means snow boots, hats and gloves/ mittens for safe, fun outdoor play. Please make sure your child has these items at school. Thanks!
